SPONSOR SPOTLIGHT

The Playhouse Merced has been an active venue for live performances and theater education for all ages for over 27 glorious years. It is due to the abundant generosity of our sponsors, which enable the Playhouse to be YOUR Community Theatre and we only continue to build momentum, in providing live theatre performances to our wonderfully diverse and rich in culture community. Every Month we will shine a Spotlight on our Sponsors who continue to support the Playhouse Merced's many avenues of curriculum, performances, and events.
We hope our community will support all of our sponsors, as patrons of their businesses.

Brandon Ruscoe

Jared Ruscoe

THANK -YOU Brandon & Jared Ruscoe and the Better Homes & Gardens Real Estate team for your continued support. The Ruscoe brothers are deeply rooted in the Merced community and joined their family business after graduating from UC Merced. If you want to list, buy, or sell any real estate in the Merced area, this is the team to call, as they know your neighbors and business owners.

NEW BOARD MEMBER

Introducing ...

Sheilah Brooks

Raised in Merced by an English Teacher, Sheilah was exposed to our Playhouse at an early age. As a mother, she passed the gifts and wonders of Playhouse Merced to her three children.

When asked her reason for becoming a Board Member, Sheilah replied, " Playhouse Merced allows our community to expand students' horizons, explore, and dream bigger. While the Central Valley is notorious for being under-resourced. Playhouse Merced in leveling the playing field for our kids. Promoting an approach to learning that is engaging, active, collaborative, meaningful, and supports mastery. "

Giving back is not just part of her daily work, it's grounded within her personal life and her passion is reflected within the various organizations she volunteers with, such as our local United Way, NAACP, Restorative Justice Center, and Youth Leadership for LGBTQ+.

Sheilah's energy knows no bounds and her commitment to our community is an inspiration for each of us. She established a foundation in her mother's name to fund local high school students with their first year of supplies for college and she currently partners with the stakeholders building the capacity of Expanded Learning Programs (EXLPs) for Merced and Mariposa County.

Playhouse Merced's Board of Directors are honored to welcome Sheilah Brooks as our newest Board Member. We know that her passion, creativity, and fundamental expertise will advance our EIC commitment quickly and efficiently.

The Board Members invite the community to their monthly meeting.
We ask guests to sign-in and inform us, if you would like to speak during the meeting.
